Company Description:

Videoplugger is an international video content agency based in London, UK, bringing the best, most newsworthy and essential video content to the media since 2005.

Videoplugger’s team consists of an enthusiastic, multilingual highly qualified staff providing content, digital delivery tools, and consulting to the worldwide media market. Videoplugger represents agencies footage archives, small TV stations, production companies and independent videographers taking care of their international distribution.

Job Description:

We are looking for a passionate, ambitious, and like-minded person to join us. The successful intern will be involved in several activities within the company, including but not limited to:

- ⤴ Updating the database of the company, publishing digital material.
- ⤴ Managing sales accounts, performing sales and pitching of our products and services.
- ⤴ Liaising with international clients and suppliers.
- ⤴ Business development.
- ⤴ Search for new market possibilities for the company and expand the Market base of the company.
- ⤴ Diary Management.
- ⤴ Other general duties as required.

The ideal candidate will be an undergraduate or graduate studying Marketing, HR, Management, Media, Business Studies, Advertising, Multimedia or similar degrees. You will have a strong academic background in general and have excellent written and verbal communications skills, and will also be digitally savvy. Previous sales or marketing experience is useful, an interest in media is essential, and the ability to speak one additional European language is preferable (i.e. French, German, Greek, Hungarian, Italian, Polish, Russian, Spanish, Slovak, etc).

We are a small company so you will get the chance learn a lot about all aspects of how a business is run. If you have bags of enthusiasm and show strong ability, there will be scope to expand your duties, in line with our agency’s general business aims.

“ Since 2005, supporting you in gathering the best newsworthy and essential multimedia content to the public”
